

OCEAN MAZE

Help the shark find its way across the oceans in search of food.

FAST FACTS

Sharks use their electrosensors to navigate the oceans. They are able to sense electrical currents by moving across the Earth's electromagnetic fields, serving as a map. Some sharks make migrations thousands of miles long, just to return to the same exact spot they left months earlier.